The Christchurch mosque shootings were two consecutive terrorist shooting attacks at mosques in Christchurch, New Zealand. They took place during Friday Prayer on 15 March 2019. Fifty-one people—47 male and 4 female—died. Those killed were between the ages of 3 and 77 years old. The attacks began at the Al Noor Mosque in the suburb of Riccarton at 1.40PM and continued at the Linwood Islamic Centre at about 1.55PM. The gunman live-streamed the first attack on Facebook Live.

Politicians and world leaders condemned the attacks. Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern said the suspect had been planning to continue the attacks at a third location. She described it as "one of New Zealand's darkest days."

The government established a Royal Commission of Inquiry into its security agencies in the wake of the attacks, which are the deadliest mass shootings in modern New Zealand history.
